

IN THE UNITED STATES COURT OF APPEALS FOR THE EIGHTH CIRCUIT

Jonathan Daniel Clements, Executor, ECC-TRUST-JDC-005

Executor, ECC-TRUST-JDC-005

Suri Juris

v.

State of Arkansas; Booneville Division, Logan County District Court; et al.

Respondents.

Case No. 25-3497

PETITION FOR WRIT OF MANDAMUS AND PROHIBITION

(Special Appearance; No Submission to State or Federal Jurisdiction)

TO THE HONORABLE JUDGES OF THE COURT:

Petitioner and Capacity.

Petitioner appears solely as Executor of ECC-TRUST-JDC-005, an un rebutted private ecclesiastical trust holding foreign standing and authority by international notice as of August 15, 2025. No valid rebuttal or lawful contest has been received from any state or federal authority.

Jurisdictional Statement.

Petitioner acts strictly as notice and demand, not by application, plea, or submission to this or any forum's jurisdiction. All rights, objections, and reservations of status are preserved. References to state or federal law are for documentation and procedural clarity only.

Material Facts.

- a. On January 22, 2026, Petitioner appeared in Booneville Division, Logan County District Court, on citations alleged to have arisen January 9, 2026.
- b. The presiding judge alleged Petitioner failed to pay fines. Petitioner stated, on the record, a plea of Not Guilty under duress and denied any adjudicated obligation to pay fines.
- c. Petitioner was seized in open court, absent any finding of guilt, sentencing, or judicial order, and removed by local law enforcement for purported transfer to the Logan County Detention Center.

d. Petitioner was not booked, presented to a magistrate, or afforded judicial review. Instead, law enforcement compelled Petitioner to contact a private bail bondsman and post bond as a condition of release, bypassing legal requirements and oversight.

e. At all relevant times, Petitioner asserted the capacity of Executor, ECC-TRUST-JDC-005, and maintained an unrebutted jurisdictional objection.

f. No state or local authority has issued lawful rebuttal or adjudication addressing the trust or Executor's standing.

Grounds for Relief.

Petitioner contends that the acts described above constitute:

Ultra vires seizure and detention of an asserted foreign administrator;

Extrajudicial compulsion of financial surety outside lawful process;

Refusal to recognize or lawfully contest the standing of ECC-TRUST-JDC-005;

Ongoing harm incapable of redress through ordinary appeal;

Violations of procedural due process, and infringement of the rights of a foreign trust Executor unrebutted by any competent forum.

Standard for Issuance.

Relief is warranted where there is:

- (a) a clear and indisputable right to the writ,
- (b) no other adequate means to attain the relief, and
- (c) the writ is appropriate under the circumstances.

See Cheney v. U.S. Dist. Court, 542 U.S. 367, 380-81 (2004); In re Medtronic, Inc., 184 F.3d 807, 811 (8th Cir. 1999).

- 2.

Extraordinary Circumstances and Need for Relief.

Petitioner is subject to continuing threat of unlawful detention and administrative harassment, resulting from acts taken in the absence of lawful authority and without jurisdiction over ECC-TRUST-JDC-005 or its Executor. The State of Arkansas has failed to contest, rebut, or lawfully engage the trust's standing and instead resorted to coercive process against a foreign administration.

Demand for Relief.

Petitioner respectfully demands that this Court issue the following:

- a. A writ of mandamus compelling the immediate cessation of all state and local proceedings, detentions, and administrative actions against Petitioner in his capacity as Executor, ECC-TRUST-JDC-005;
- b. A writ of prohibition barring any further assertion of jurisdiction, detention, or compelled appearance by the State of Arkansas or its subdivisions with respect to the trust or its Executor;
- c. Immediate release from all process, bond, and administrative or custodial restrictions arising from the January 22, 2026, events and subsequent actions;
- d. Expungement of any record, process, or judicial act taken against the Executor or trust administration relating to these events;
- e. Such further or alternative relief as this Court may find necessary to enforce and protect the standing and integrity of ECC-TRUST-JDC-005 and its Executor.

All rights and objections reserved. Filing herein is for notice, record, and enforcement only, not as submission to the jurisdiction or authority of this or any court.

Respectfully noticed,
